

A. N. TIME TABLE

Table with columns for destination, time, and fare. Includes routes to Lincoln, Omaha, and other cities.

UNION PACIFIC TIME TABLE

Table with columns for destination, time, and fare. Includes routes to Lincoln, Omaha, and other cities.

FOR ALBION AND CEDAR RAPIDS

Table with columns for destination, time, and fare. Includes routes to Albion and Cedar Rapids.

Society Notices

EPH All notices under this heading will be charged at the rate of $2 a year.

LEBANON LODGE No. 54, A. F. & A. M. Regular meeting 2d Wednesday in each month.

WILDEY LODGE No. 41, I. O. O. F. Regular meeting 2d Wednesday in each month.

REORGANIZED CHURCH OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS Regular meeting 2d Wednesday in each month.

Until further notice, all advertisements under this heading will be charged at the rate of five cents a line each issue.

Buy the new suits at Galley Bros. Men's suits, boys' suits, and more.

Those in need of horse bills, call at THE JOURNAL office.

Meals, at any hour day or night, at the Home Restaurant.

Wanted, a good, young, gentle fresh milch cow. J. H. Galley.

Gold-filled watches as low as $12 at the sign of the big watch. 3-21

Old newspapers by the hundred, 25 cents at the JOURNAL office.

Dr. Willy was called to attend Mrs. J. Fida, who was very ill Saturday.

The finest baby buggies in the city. Call and see them. F. W. Herrick.

For the watch repairing, go to Ed. J. Niwroner, sign of the big watch. 3-21

Dr. T. R. Clark, successor to Dr. DeLong, Olive St. in office at nights.

Books, Toys, Pianos, Organs, Sewing Machines. E. D. Fitzpatrick, 13th st.

Rev. Worley at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. Halakabb, 11-4.

Best stock of wall paper, paints and stencils in the city at Stillman's drug store. 1-41

M. Watkins is engaged in fencing J. E. North's forty acres, northwest of the city.

A new lot of watches and jewelry just arrived at Niwroner's, sign of the big watch. 3-21

Rev. W. M. Worley preaches the Memorial sermon at Platte Center, May 31st, at 3 p. m.

J. W. Jenkins has leased the Grand Pacific hotel of W. T. Howard, and will soon occupy it.

D. B. Duffy, Schuyler, Neb., will do your home-moving, in good shape and at reasonable prices. 11-cov

Insure your property with North & Chambers. They will place your policy with the best companies. 381F

Joe T. Camp was in town Friday. Joe has lately sold his new paper at Fremont, the Independent.

Work is going rapidly forward on J. P. Becker's new brick block, corner of Twelfth and North streets.

The ladies of the M. E. church give an ice-cream social next Monday evening at the Home Restaurant. All invited.

The celebrated Quick-Meal and Monarch gelatin stoves, the best in the market. For sale by A. Bechtel, 41F

J. J. Baker has sold his restaurant to Wm. Mansfield of Sioux City, to give possession about the 12th or 14th.

George Salmon is at Omaha, under the care of an oculist, but gives slight hope of his preserving his eyesight.

Rev. Elliott, the new pastor of the Presbyterian church, removed to the city Tuesday, from Missouri Valley.

All the land that is good for pasture lying outside of the corporation on the north is being enclosed with substantial fences.

The ladies' musicale met Monday evening with Miss Nellie North. The next meeting will be with Mrs. L. Jaggi.

Plymouth Rocks and Singlecomb White Leghorns of the finest strains. Eggs for hatching $1.50 setting. H. F. Coalinge.

Be sure to renew your insurance with North & Chambers. They will in all respects, deal fairly by you, and protect your interests. 381F

Mrs. Fred Kinney and daughter, left this noon for Columbus, where the latter will attend St. Francis Academy.

Fremont Tribune.

Judge Post held a short session of court Tuesday afternoon at Albert & Gooding's office. Hearing the case of J. C. Echols v. R. Brandt et al.

We are now showing the choicest line of sample carpets in the city. Call and see us. Galley Bros.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Casteria.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Casteria.

—Dave Smith has moved his confectionery store four doors east of his old establishment, and is now next to the Meridian hotel.

—Hermann Kunemann brought in a crazy man that had been working for him Wednesday; says he thought he might kill Mrs. Kunemann.

—Superintendent L. J. Cramer and Robert Craig were present Saturday at the teachers' meeting at Humphrey, and report a very enjoyable time.

—J. P. Able team had a pretty close call Wednesday evening, from a railroad train—horses concluded they would skip out rather than take any great risks.

—Occidental Lodge K. of P. were honored last week by a visit of brother Knights from Schuyler, and also Chancellor Commander Beckett of Genoa.

—For Harrison wagon and Courtland Spring wagons and buggies, call on J. A. Gutzmer, opposite Dwyer's drug store. He is sure to satisfy you in prices and quality.

—Henry Schwack, thought to have been unbalanced mentally, has been released from custody, having seemed to recover. He worked for Herman Kunemann.

—Jacob Wagner has leased the Judkins House, and has gone east to lay in a full line of furniture for the same, expecting to open out in about ten or fifteen days.

—We have just received our spring stock of parasols and sun umbrellas, the best line in the city, at Galley Bros.

—S. O. Raymond wants everybody to help him secure a good fair for Columbus this fall, September 16th, 17th and 18th. Very few but can do something to help along.

—House and lot, with good barn and other out houses, for sale cheap for cash. Shultz's addition. Inquire at Arnold & Kibler's real estate office or at THE JOURNAL office. 281F

—H. J. Hudson reports a very pleasant time at David City last week on the occasion of the seventieth anniversary of the organization of Oddfellows in the United States.

—Several members of Willey Lodge I. O. O. F. go to Schuyler tomorrow (Thursday) evening, to take part in instituting an encampment in connection with the lodge there.

—Mrs. Elias drew six of those elegant plates last evening at Stillman's. The large wash bowls and pitchers are still in the window. Boys one will certainly get a new present there.

—Thomas C. Williams, sheriff of Boone county, died suddenly Saturday week, leaving a wife and eight children. He was a member of the G. A. R. and Modern Woodmen of America.

—Henry C. Bean, one of our energetic farmer friends on the north side, gave us a pleasant business call the other day. He will set apart a small acreage to sugar beets the coming season.

—Will Murdock and family arrived Thursday from San Diego, Calif., and will make this their home. They couldn't even rent it—just nailed it up and let it go.

—Clothing! Clothing! Call and see our new spring styles, the largest stock in the city, and the prices the lowest, at Galley Bros.

—Vincent A. Macken, corner of North and Fifteenth streets, has added to his property a very neat fence composed of wooden posts, with large metal tubing for rails. Vincent has a very handsome and desirable residence property.

—Miss M. E. McEach entertained a few of her pupils last Friday evening. Singing and games were the order of the evening. She was the recipient of a very pretty "May Basket" presented by Maud Woolley, one of her pupils.

—A cold wave struck this region Sunday, continuing to this writing. Frost was reported in places Sunday morning. We heard of none since, it being cloudy Sunday night, but it seemed almost cold enough for snow Monday morning.

—When you want a first-class article of spring or winter wheat flour, of Graham, rye, or buckwheat flour, kiln-dried corn meal, for family use; also bran, shorts, chopped corn, or chopped corn and oats mixed, call at Becker's on Thirteenth street.

—Mrs. Ella Swanton, Friday evening, May 28th, packed ready for shipment, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton have made many friends during their residence in David City. The best wishes of many friends are for them to their new home in the east.

—Miss Swanton is as far ahead of the ordinary ten-cent drama. She is perfectly at home with the most difficult recitations from Shakespeare as well as in the light and humorous. Her imitations of birds and animals could not be excelled. Her costumes are rare and costly, and on the stage Miss Swanton is a picture of grace and loveliness. (Watchman News, Dec. 15)

—George S. Truman was in town Thursday and gave THE JOURNAL office a friendly call. He was returning home to Genoa from a trip to the southern part of the state. He, as well as a great many others, are not particularly well pleased with the recent change in the running of the Albion branch.

—Elder St. Clair has some Buff Cochins hens that are his delight and pride. Yesterday one of them laid an egg that measured six inches around one way and eight inches the other. There is a possibility of the M. E. church conference meeting here, which may account for the hen laying such an extraordinary egg. (Madison Chronicle)

—Rev. Thorpe attended the funeral of Rev. Thomas Thompson, at Albion last Tuesday afternoon, taking part with Revs. Hodgetts, Marquette, Olcott, Osborne, Phelps, and Leedom, Methodists, and Rev. Turner, Congregational, in giving some reminiscences of the deceased pioneer. He was born in Somersetshire, England, and was in the sixty-first year of his age.

—John Tannahill received last week a letter from John Bonna, a former resident of Bismarck, Butler county, and also a correspondent of THE JOURNAL, who used to sign himself "Why Not." In this letter, dated from Arkansas City, Kansas, he gives some of his experience in Arkansas, which state he was notified to leave because he had been instrumental in organizing a post of the Grand Army of the Republic. He advises old soldiers to keep out of that country.

—Come to think of it, it is not a very promising state of affairs, feeling where the picture of Jeff Davis is ordered by a legislature to take the place of that of George Washington. Let us have peace—on the basis of loyalty.

—Married, April 30th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Wagoner, Grand Prairie, by Rev. A. Henrich, Mr. Peter L. Bechtel, son of Rev. H. F. Bechtel, and Miss Wilhelmina Wedgen. After the ceremony, quite a number of friends and neighbors partook of a bountiful supper and congratulated the happy couple most heartily.

—A meeting was called for last evening (Tuesday) May 5th, 8 p. m., at Masonic hall, for the organization of a Ladies' Relief Corps for Baker Post G. A. R. It was understood that twenty-six ladies had given their names as charter members, and Mrs. Eliza C. Pillsbury of Grand Island, chairman of the executive board, was the officer to be present.

—On the 28th there were several complaints entered at police court by Chief of Police, Thomas McTaggart: one against Grace Cushman as being an inmate of a house of prostitution; Maud Arlington, same; Frank Berch, same; against Hattie Perry, as a keeper of a house of prostitution; also Dolie Cummings, same offense. The three former were fined $5 each and costs, amounting in each case to a total of $10.10. Two keepers of the houses were fined $10 each and costs, amounting to $15.10 each. The Perry woman was once before arraigned before the court, fined $20 and the case appealed. Whatever became of it, we don't know.

—The Chautauque Literary and Scientific Circle meets with Miss Adelle Ransdell, Tuesday evening, May 12th, 1891, with the following program for the evening: Roll call. Quotations from Pascal. Walks and Talks in the Geological Fields, chap. xviii-xxii—Mr. V. Weaver. Classic French course in Euclid, chap. ix-xx—Miss Ransdell. Reading—Life in Modern English—Mr. H. Foxonberger. Discussion—The influence of Puritanism; base the talk on "Life in Modern England."—By the Circle. Recitation—Madame de Sevigne—Miss Clara Weaver.

—Those who desire to go to Columbus and return the same day over the U. P. find it very difficult to do so and the Sun thinks the officials are not using Schuyler right in not having No. 2, the limited from the west, stop here. If one goes to Columbus on the 1:30 he must either stay until the next morning to come home or go to Fremont and come back on No. 7, thus traveling ninety miles to make thirty. It is an injustice to the town. Henry Mullis who went to the Pacific coast some time ago to look over the country was in Schuyler yesterday. He has decided not to take his family there and has bought himself another farm this side of Columbus. (Schuyler Sun)

—The west is fast "catching on" to an expressive phrase of the boys. The schools are instituting their crises and yells, and other paraphernalia. Iowa puts hers into cold type thus: Hi! Hi! Hi! Giddy, Giddy, U. I. We have never seen Nebraska's University yell in type, but venture to set it forth thus: U. U. U. N. L. Ver, Ver, Verity, of Nebraska, O, My!

—And it is wonderful with what volume and concert the students, boys and girls, can deliver it, on occasion.

A DOUBLE WEDDING.

Two People Made Happy at the Same Moment by Father Ryan.

SAVAGE—GETZLER—Thursday, April 28th, 1921, at St. John's Catholic church, in this city, before the Rev. Father Ryan, in the presence of a large number of friends, Mr. Michael Savage and Miss Kate Getzler.

We always knew that some kind fate was lying in wait for Mike, and now he comes boldly to town with one of Platte county's fair daughters, Miss Kate, daughter of Robert Getzler, and a cousin of Mrs. D. C. Kavanaugh of this city. For twenty years Mr. Savage has been the faithful, constant, careful, trusted employe of the Union Pacific Company, in season and out of season, on hand to take care of the lives of those traveling on the road. He has prospered in this world's goods and now shares that prosperity with another worthy of himself. Long may they live to make each other happy, is the wish of all their acquaintances.

Mr. O'Callahan is section foreman at Green River, Wyoming, whither in a few days the happy couple will go to live. Miss Savage has for a number of years lived with her brother near this city, and is well known to JOURNAL readers. Among the presents received by the bride was that of a choice lot in the city from her brother, Michael.

The good wishes of all her acquaintances will go with her to her western home, for continued health, prosperity and long life.

On the 28th there were several complaints entered at police court by Chief of Police, Thomas McTaggart: one against Grace Cushman as being an inmate of a house of prostitution; Maud Arlington, same; Frank Berch, same; against Hattie Perry, as a keeper of a house of prostitution; also Dolie Cummings, same offense. The three former were fined $5 each and costs, amounting in each case to a total of $10.10. Two keepers of the houses were fined $10 each and costs, amounting to $15.10 each. The Perry woman was once before arraigned before the court, fined $20 and the case appealed. Whatever became of it, we don't know.

—The Chautauque Literary and Scientific Circle meets with Miss Adelle Ransdell, Tuesday evening, May 12th, 1891, with the following program for the evening: Roll call. Quotations from Pascal. Walks and Talks in the Geological Fields, chap. xviii-xxii—Mr. V. Weaver. Classic French course in Euclid, chap. ix-xx—Miss Ransdell. Reading—Life in Modern English—Mr. H. Foxonberger. Discussion—The influence of Puritanism; base the talk on "Life in Modern England."—By the Circle. Recitation—Madame de Sevigne—Miss Clara Weaver.

—Those who desire to go to Columbus and return the same day over the U. P. find it very difficult to do so and the Sun thinks the officials are not using Schuyler right in not having No. 2, the limited from the west, stop here. If one goes to Columbus on the 1:30 he must either stay until the next morning to come home or go to Fremont and come back on No. 7, thus traveling ninety miles to make thirty. It is an injustice to the town. Henry Mullis who went to the Pacific coast some time ago to look over the country was in Schuyler yesterday. He has decided not to take his family there and has bought himself another farm this side of Columbus. (Schuyler Sun)

—The west is fast "catching on" to an expressive phrase of the boys. The schools are instituting their crises and yells, and other paraphernalia. Iowa puts hers into cold type thus: Hi! Hi! Hi! Giddy, Giddy, U. I. We have never seen Nebraska's University yell in type, but venture to set it forth thus: U. U. U. N. L. Ver, Ver, Verity, of Nebraska, O, My!

—And it is wonderful with what volume and concert the students, boys and girls, can deliver it, on occasion.

—We had all supposed that W. A. Hampton was about to return to Humphrey, from David City, but the Tribune says: "W. A. Hampton is preparing to remove with his family to Ada, Ohio, early next week. Their household goods are already packed ready for shipment. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton have made many friends during their residence in David City. The best wishes of many friends are for them to their new home in the east."

—Miss Swanton is as far ahead of the ordinary ten-cent drama. She is perfectly at home with the most difficult recitations from Shakespeare as well as in the light and humorous. Her imitations of birds and animals could not be excelled. Her costumes are rare and costly, and on the stage Miss Swanton is a picture of grace and loveliness. (Watchman News, Dec. 15)

—George S. Truman was in town Thursday and gave THE JOURNAL office a friendly call. He was returning home to Genoa from a trip to the southern part of the state. He, as well as a great many others, are not particularly well pleased with the recent change in the running of the Albion branch.

—Elder St. Clair has some Buff Cochins hens that are his delight and pride. Yesterday one of them laid an egg that measured six inches around one way and eight inches the other. There is a possibility of the M. E. church conference meeting here, which may account for the hen laying such an extraordinary egg. (Madison Chronicle)

—Rev. Thorpe attended the funeral of Rev. Thomas Thompson, at Albion last Tuesday afternoon, taking part with Revs. Hodgetts, Marquette, Olcott, Osborne, Phelps, and Leedom, Methodists, and Rev. Turner, Congregational, in giving some reminiscences of the deceased pioneer. He was born in Somersetshire, England, and was in the sixty-first year of his age.

—John Tannahill received last week a letter from John Bonna, a former resident of Bismarck, Butler county, and also a correspondent of THE JOURNAL, who used to sign himself "Why Not." In this letter, dated from Arkansas City, Kansas, he gives some of his experience in Arkansas, which state he was notified to leave because he had been instrumental in organizing a post of the Grand Army of the Republic. He advises old soldiers to keep out of that country.

—Come to think of it, it is not a very promising state of affairs, feeling where the picture of Jeff Davis is ordered by a legislature to take the place of that of George Washington. Let us have peace—on the basis of loyalty.

—Married, April 30th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Wagoner, Grand Prairie, by Rev. A. Henrich, Mr. Peter L. Bechtel, son of Rev. H. F. Bechtel, and Miss Wilhelmina Wedgen. After the ceremony, quite a number of friends and neighbors partook of a bountiful supper and congratulated the happy couple most heartily.

—A meeting was called for last evening (Tuesday) May 5th, 8 p. m., at Masonic hall, for the organization of a Ladies' Relief Corps for Baker Post G. A. R. It was understood that twenty-six ladies had given their names as charter members, and Mrs. Eliza C. Pillsbury of Grand Island, chairman of the executive board, was the officer to be present.

—On the 28th there were several complaints entered at police court by Chief of Police, Thomas McTaggart: one against Grace Cushman as being an inmate of a house of prostitution; Maud Arlington, same; Frank Berch, same; against Hattie Perry, as a keeper of a house of prostitution; also Dolie Cummings, same offense. The three former were fined $5 each and costs, amounting in each case to a total of $10.10. Two keepers of the houses were fined $10 each and costs, amounting to $15.10 each. The Perry woman was once before arraigned before the court, fined $20 and the case appealed. Whatever became of it, we don't know.

—The Chautauque Literary and Scientific Circle meets with Miss Adelle Ransdell, Tuesday evening, May 12th, 1891, with the following program for the evening: Roll call. Quotations from Pascal. Walks and Talks in the Geological Fields, chap. xviii-xxii—Mr. V. Weaver. Classic French course in Euclid, chap. ix-xx—Miss Ransdell. Reading—Life in Modern English—Mr. H. Foxonberger. Discussion—The influence of Puritanism; base the talk on "Life in Modern England."—By the Circle. Recitation—Madame de Sevigne—Miss Clara Weaver.

—Those who desire to go to Columbus and return the same day over the U. P. find it very difficult to do so and the Sun thinks the officials are not using Schuyler right in not having No. 2, the limited from the west, stop here. If one goes to Columbus on the 1:30 he must either stay until the next morning to come home or go to Fremont and come back on No. 7, thus traveling ninety miles to make thirty. It is an injustice to the town. Henry Mullis who went to the Pacific coast some time ago to look over the country was in Schuyler yesterday. He has decided not to take his family there and has bought himself another farm this side of Columbus. (Schuyler Sun)

—The west is fast "catching on" to an expressive phrase of the boys. The schools are instituting their crises and yells, and other paraphernalia. Iowa puts hers into cold type thus: Hi! Hi! Hi! Giddy, Giddy, U. I. We have never seen Nebraska's University yell in type, but venture to set it forth thus: U. U. U. N. L. Ver, Ver, Verity, of Nebraska, O, My!

—And it is wonderful with what volume and concert the students, boys and girls, can deliver it, on occasion.

—We had all supposed that W. A. Hampton was about to return to Humphrey, from David City, but the Tribune says: "W. A. Hampton is preparing to remove with his family to Ada, Ohio, early next week. Their household goods are already packed ready for shipment. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton have made many friends during their residence in David City. The best wishes of many friends are for them to their new home in the east."

—Miss Swanton is as far ahead of the ordinary ten-cent drama. She is perfectly at home with the most difficult recitations from Shakespeare as well as in the light and humorous. Her imitations of birds and animals could not be excelled. Her costumes are rare and costly, and on the stage Miss Swanton is a picture of grace and loveliness. (Watchman News, Dec. 15)

—George S. Truman was in town Thursday and gave THE JOURNAL office a friendly call. He was returning home to Genoa from a trip to the southern part of the state. He, as well as a great many others, are not particularly well pleased with the recent change in the running of the Albion branch.

—Elder St. Clair has some Buff Cochins hens that are his delight and pride. Yesterday one of them laid an egg that measured six inches around one way and eight inches the other. There is a possibility of the M. E. church conference meeting here, which may account for the hen laying such an extraordinary egg. (Madison Chronicle)

—Rev. Thorpe attended the funeral of Rev. Thomas Thompson, at Albion last Tuesday afternoon, taking part with Revs. Hodgetts, Marquette, Olcott, Osborne, Phelps, and Leedom, Methodists, and Rev. Turner, Congregational, in giving some reminiscences of the deceased pioneer. He was born in Somersetshire, England, and was in the sixty-first year of his age.

—John Tannahill received last week a letter from John Bonna, a former resident of Bismarck, Butler county, and also a correspondent of THE JOURNAL, who used to sign himself "Why Not." In this letter, dated from Arkansas City, Kansas, he gives some of his experience in Arkansas, which state he was notified to leave because he had been instrumental in organizing a post of the Grand Army of the Republic. He advises old soldiers to keep out of that country.

—Come to think of it, it is not a very promising state of affairs, feeling where the picture of Jeff Davis is ordered by a legislature to take the place of that of George Washington. Let us have peace—on the basis of loyalty.

—Married, April 30th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Wagoner, Grand Prairie, by Rev. A. Henrich, Mr. Peter L. Bechtel, son of Rev. H. F. Bechtel, and Miss Wilhelmina Wedgen. After the ceremony, quite a number of friends and neighbors partook of a bountiful supper and congratulated the happy couple most heartily.

—A meeting was called for last evening (Tuesday) May 5th, 8 p. m., at Masonic hall, for the organization of a Ladies' Relief Corps for Baker Post G. A. R. It was understood that twenty-six ladies had given their names as charter members, and Mrs. Eliza C. Pillsbury of Grand Island, chairman of the executive board, was the officer to be present.

—On the 28th there were several complaints entered at police court by Chief of Police, Thomas McTaggart: one against Grace Cushman as being an inmate of a house of prostitution; Maud Arlington, same; Frank Berch, same; against Hattie Perry, as a keeper of a house of prostitution; also Dolie Cummings, same offense. The three former were fined $5 each and costs, amounting in each case to a total of $10.10. Two keepers of the houses were fined $10 each and costs, amounting to $15.10 each. The Perry woman was once before arraigned before the court, fined $20 and the case appealed. Whatever became of it, we don't know.

—The Chautauque Literary and Scientific Circle meets with Miss Adelle Ransdell, Tuesday evening, May 12th, 1891, with the following program for the evening: Roll call. Quotations from Pascal. Walks and Talks in the Geological Fields, chap. xviii-xxii—Mr. V. Weaver. Classic French course in Euclid, chap. ix-xx—Miss Ransdell. Reading—Life in Modern English—Mr. H. Foxonberger. Discussion—The influence of Puritanism; base the talk on "Life in Modern England."—By the Circle. Recitation—Madame de Sevigne—Miss Clara Weaver.

PERSONAL.

Miss Kate Early was at home Sunday. Joseph Borowiak passed Sunday at Omaha.

William Lamb of Omaha was in town Monday.

J. R. Smith of Oconee was in the city Thursday.

W. T. Rickly was a Cedar Rapids visitor Friday.

G. W. Kibler of Leigh was a Columbus visitor Friday.

Mrs. C. E. Pollock returned Saturday from Ashton, 11.

Leo Borowiak passed Sunday with his father at Duncan.

Judge Sullivan was at Fullerton last week on legal business.

L. J. Baker was under the doctor's care a portion of last week.

G. W. Clark of Humphrey was a visitor at the county seat Monday.

High Oehlrichs of Grand Island is visiting his brothers in this city.

W. B. Backus and W. H. Winterbotham of Genoa were in the city yesterday.

Miss Nellie Curtis began Monday, her fourth year of teaching at Waterville school-house.

W. F. Critchfield, esq., was in town Saturday on his way home to Fullerton, from Fremont.

W. T. Howard of Schuyler was in the city Thursday looking after the Grand Pacific property.

Mrs. T. Friedhof went to Silver Creek Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Barker.

R. R. Sutherland of Lincoln, superintendent O. & N. V. division of the U. P., was in town Thursday.

Mrs. W. M. Worley's sister, Mrs. Cummings, of Des Moines, Ia., went to Burlington Tuesday, accompanied by her young son.

Mrs. Clark Cooney came down from Fullerton Thursday, and visited with Mrs. R. W. Parkinson, returning home Saturday.

George N. Lamb of the vicinity of Platte Center was in town Monday on business, and gave us a pleasant, though very brief call.

Mrs. Sigenthaler, accompanied by her two daughters and youngest son, left last Tuesday for Tecoma, Wash.—[Humphrey Democrat.]

Mrs. H. D. Coan, son and daughter, left Monday for their new home in Seneca, Kansas. The good wishes of many friends will go with them.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Penney, who have been visiting in Fullerton, were in the city Monday on their way home to Lexington, Neb., their future home.

Judge Higgins, Governor Boyd's private secretary, who has been a very sick man at Lincoln, passed through this city Saturday evening, bound for Grand Island, to take a rest.

W. H. Harris, police judge of Madison, was in town Saturday and gave this office a pleasant call, on business. He was re-elected this spring to the position which he now occupies.

Mr. Truman, Mrs. Joe Truman, aunt and daughter, and Miss Ella Birdsell returned Friday from the "Friends" meeting at Lincoln. They spent Friday night with R. C. Boyd's family.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Telegram proffered to do the legal printing of the council, first time to a third legal rate, second time at one-third legal rate, job work at fair commercial rates. Referred to committee on printing.

L. Gluck offered to let the council have the use of his office one year at $50 a year. After some contest as to what committee should look after this, Speice remarked that as perhaps there was a legal reason why it should be $50 this year, and only $24 last, it might be well enough to refer it to the judiciary, which was accordingly done.

Water Commissioner O. L. Baker reported as follows for the year ending May 1, 1921:

On motion of Gray, the report was referred back for detailed report.

The petition of M. Whitmore, John B. Geitzen, S. C. & C. G. Gray,